

Ironbridge

Ironbridge has a selection of museums celebrating the industrial revolution including Blists Hill Victorian Town, Coalport China Museum, Enginuity and many more.

Acton Scott Historic Working Farm

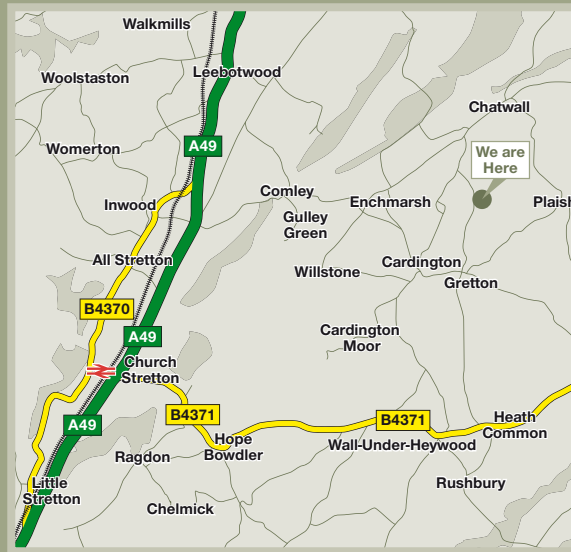

Experience daily life on an upland farm at the turn of the 19th century, as seen on BBC TV's Victorian Farm series. Watch milking by hand, butter making in the dairy and demonstrations of period skills and visits from the Wheelwright, Farrier and Blacksmith.

Much Wenlock

A quintessentially English town, off the beaten track and the birthplace of William Penny Brookes, founding father of the Modern Olympic Games.

How to Find Us

Directions

- From Church Stretton, go to the village of Wall-Under-Heywood.
- Take the 2nd left after the Plough Inn, signed to Cardington and Gretton.
- At the end of this road, approx. 1.5 miles, turn left immediately right, signed to Chatwall.
- Woodside Farm is 1st on the left, approx. 1 mile up the road, over a cattle grid.

Woodside Farm Bed & Breakfast

Cardington, Church Stretton,
Shropshire SY6 7LB

Mrs Pat Evans

Tel: 01694 771314

www.woodsidefarmchurchstretton.co.uk

Woodside Farm

Bed and Breakfast

"Amazing place, just what we were looking for."

- Mr & Mrs Russell,
Stratford-Upon-Avon

Woodside Farm Bed & Breakfast

Cardington, Church Stretton,
Shropshire SY6 7LB

Mrs Pat Evans

Tel: 01694 771314

www.woodsidefarmchurchstretton.co.uk

Welcome to Woodside Farm Bed and Breakfast

For anyone who wants to escape to the country for one night or a longer stay, Woodside Farm is peacefully situated mid way between the market towns of Church Stretton and Much Wenlock in Shropshire.

Accommodation

Our comfortable farm house comprises three bedrooms all with beautiful views of the surrounding hills and farm animals.

- 1 double en-suite
- 1 family en-suite (may be used as a twin)
- 1 single with wash basin and bathroom on the same landing

Facilities

- Very clean spacious rooms
- TV in bedrooms
- Tea and coffee making facilities
- Sitting room with TV and log fire
- Farmhouse dining table
- Menu and local breakfast produce
- Vegetarian diets catered for
- Ample parking
- Garden for guests' use
- Railway station at Church Stretton

Woodside is set on the leyhill slope between Caer Caradoc and Wenlock Edge, easily accessible, it is well situated for walking and beautiful views can be seen from the nearby Longmynd.

Guests may also like to explore historic castles, abbeys, museums and the Ironbridge Gorge World Heritage Site, birthplace of the Industrial Revolution. Several other attractions are also nearby.

Woodside Farm is a semi retired family farm rearing beef cattle and a commercial flock of breeding ewes. It is approximately 1 mile from Cardington village.

Guest Comments

"Thank you for a lovely weekend. Breakfast superb! Lovely log fires!"
- Mr & Mrs Barnes, Dorset

"Wonderful setting and fantastic hospitality. Thank you for looking after us so well."
- Mrs & Mrs White & family, Cambridge

"Mrs Evans will spoil you."
- Mr & Mrs Hollis, Northampton

"Here we are again, happy as can be."
- Mr & Mrs Cranshaw, Sheffield

"Lovely old fashioned hospitality, thank you."
- Mr & Mrs Carr, Telford

Local Attractions & Places to Visit

Church Stretton

Church Stretton is in the heart of the Shropshire hills, an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. It is also known as 'little Switzerland' for its alpine like hills and valleys and is a popular destination for walkers.

Ludlow

Ludlow was described by John Betjeman as "the loveliest town in England". It has a lively market, food fairs, speciality food shops and numerous restaurants and Inns. With over 500 listed buildings, mainly Georgian or half-timbered, Ludlow is a feast for the eyes.

